The image features a vertical stack of Finnish text on a black background. The text is rendered in a bold, bubbly font. The first five lines are filled with a brown, textured pattern resembling a cloudy sky, while the final line is filled with a light blue color. Numerous realistic water droplets of various sizes are scattered around the text, particularly on the right side, creating a sense of rain or mist. The overall aesthetic is clean and modern, with a focus on natural elements.
